Dear Supporter,

The National American Arab Nurses Association (NAANA) invites you to its 11th Annual Angel of Mercy event, which will be held in person for the first time in two years, on Thursday, October 20, 2022, at Byblos Banquets, 7258 Chase Road, Dearborn, Michigan 48126.

The contributions of nurses can no longer be ignored or downplayed. We have seen the superhuman contributions of our Arab American nurses and all nurses on the front lines everyday caring for their patients with and despite the coronavirus, our greatest health crisis in generations! What's more, they have taken on the role of surrogate family when their patients' families couldn't be with them in their final hours.

We will discuss this important "responsibility" during our in-person gathering.

We'll recognize an extraordinary nurse as our 2022 Angel of Mercy. NAANA also provides scholarships to Arab American nursing students who show strong academic achievement, leadership, and community involvement. Thanks to our amazing sponsors, in the last couple years, NAANA has been able to award more than double our usual number of scholarships.

We know that you still believe in NAANA's mission and that nurses are needed more now than ever. Please strongly consider supporting NAANA again this year. Thank you!

Sponsorship Opportunities

The National American Arab Nurses Association (NAANA) was founded in 2003 by Rose Khalifa, RN, BSN, as a non-profit, professional organization whose vision is to serve as a voice, a network and a resource for men and women in their pursuit of employment and advancement within the nursing profession.
